Volunteers celebrated in Cunnamulla

Volunteers in Cunnamulla will be the guests of honour at a wine and cheese evening at Yapunyah Aged Care Facility to say thank you to them for their dedicated and tireless efforts in sharing their lives and time with the community.

National Volunteer Week runs from 10-16 May and provides an opportunity to highlight the role of volunteers in our communities and to say thank you to the five million Australians who volunteer.

Yapunyah's six volunteers will be recognised at the celebration on Monday 10 May. Care Coordinator Gwen Hooper said their volunteers play an important role at the service, and this was one way of thanking them for their contribution.

"Volunteers at Yapunyah help out in a variety of ways and each contribute to enriching the lives of our residents," Ms Hooper said.

"Our volunteers assist with bus outings, activities, transport, meal times, and by providing companionship to residents.

"The wine and cheese night is a small way to say thanks to each one of them, and will include a presentation of a certificate of appreciation and gift bag for each volunteer.

"Volunteers are vitally important to us, and we are always looking for more people who may be able to give a few hours of their time, even if it is only once a month. It makes such a difference to the lives of our residents and our current volunteers find it very rewarding as well."

Yapunyah Aged Care Facility is operated by Churches of Christ Care (Care). Care has more than 600 volunteers across Queensland who assist in their early childhood, child protection, housing and aged care services.
